Absentee Bidding Registration

Absentee Bids are executed alternately in competition with the registered online bidders. It is possible, due to variations in bidding patterns, that a lot may be won by the online audience for the same amount authorized by an absentee bidder. A (+) sign to the right of the bid amount will authorize the absentee bidder to bid one additional bid. In the event of identical bids, the first bid received will take precedence.

Arranging Payment

In order to avoid delays in receiving purchases, buyers are requested to make payment arrangements or supply credit references in advance of the sale date. Purchases cannot leave our premises until checks have been cleared. All payment will be cash, check, Visa, MasterCard or wire transfer.

Note

Please note that the execution of written bids is offered as an additional service for no extra charge, and at the bidder's risk. It is undertaken subject to Santa Fe Art Auction's other commitments at the time of the auction. Santa Fe Art Auction therefore cannot accept liability for failure to place such bids, whether through negligence or otherwise.
